Every effort has been made to update all information which appears in this catalog. The college has moved away from creating a published, printed catalog book. Important course and program information is generated electronically, making the information more accessible and accurate for our students, while allowing the college to be more environmentally sustainable. The college reserves the right to change its requirements in accordance with changing state laws and actions of the Allan Hancock College Board of Trustees. Such laws and actions will supersede regulations on the same subject which appear in this catalog and other official college publications.

The Allan Hancock Joint Community College District is committed to the active promotion of diversity and equal access and opportunities to all staff, students, and applicants, including qualified members of underrepresented/protected groups. The college assures that no person shall be discriminated against because of race, color, ancestry, religion, gender, national origin, age, physical/mental disability, medical condition, status as a Vietnam-era veteran, marital status, or sexual orientation.

Allan Hancock College will provide, upon request, alternate translation of its general information documents print or other formats. Please call (805) 922-6966 ext. 3788.
