

Basic Needs Initiative

The Allan Hancock College's Basic Needs Program is used to help students who face a basic necessity insecurity. The efforts are in support of the CSU Chancellor's office Basic Needs Initiative model. The main purpose of the program is to serve students who may be experiencing food insecurity, housing insecurity, and other emergency or crisis situations. All of these areas play a crucial role on the students mental and physical well being, assisting them with these necessities will help the students to best focus their attention on their academic success.
