

Proficiency Verification

A verification of proficiency may be issued to a student to validate the performance of a specific skill at a prescribed level. Students should contact the department chair for further information as to what verifications are available and the specific requirements in each area.