
Cancelled Classes

The college reserves the right to cancel classes due to low enrollment or other circumstances.

In the event that the college cancels a class for any reason and the student chooses not to re-enroll in any other course, the student may obtain a refund of fees paid for the course. The process of obtaining the refund is the same as for voluntary withdrawals, except for the refund deadline. Refunds for classes which are canceled by the college are exempted from the posted refund deadlines.