

History

Award Type: Associate in Arts for Transfer

History is the study of continuity and change in human societies over time. The history major fosters an understanding of ourselves and our world through the study of the past-both remote and recent. It is by nature an extremely broad discipline that includes an analysis of individuals and groups, events and phenomena, long-term trends and short-term trends, institutions, societies, and cultures. The primary objectives of the associate in arts in history for transfer degree are: to prepare students for transfer to a California State University and completion of general education requirements for the students planning to enroll in a four-year institution. Associate Degree for Transfer Program Requirements a) Completion of 60 semester units that are transferable to the California State University. b) Completion of the Intersegmental General Education Transfer Curriculum (IGETC) or California State University General Education-Breadth (CSU GE). c) Obtainment of a minimum grade point average of 2.0 with all courses in the major being completed with a grade of "C" or better.

The graduate of the Associate in Arts for Transfer in History will:

- Identify connections between specific people, groups, events and ideas and larger historical themes, developments and topics.
- Describe how the social, political, intellectual, and economic systems of a particular society change over time.
- Critically analyze primary and secondary sources in college-level essays, written assignments, and research papers.
